Atoms of Thought

George Santayana

The essence of this distinguished scholar's thought on almost every subject of general interest to humanity. A valuable handbook for speakers, writers and teachers as well as those who wish a few moments of thrill or pleasure with one who, according to Corliss Lamont, "writes philosophy more beautifully than any other thinker since Plato."

The Reconstruction of Humanity

Pitrim A. Sorokin

(Author of "Social Philosophies of an Age of Crisis")

A new book by the most widely translated sociologist in the world. The Times Literary Supplement devoted its two front pages entirely to the works of this eminent thinker, of whom Dr. H. E. Barnes has said: "Toynbee and Sorokin are the twin Augustines of our era."
